Not Improved.

Burlington street under its present guise of "improvement" comes within one of being the worst street in the city—so far as appearances go and so far as teaming over it is concerned.

It is finished in natural mud, decorated with deep wheel-furrows, and garnished with fir curbsings which promise soon to fall over. In its present condition it seems to be impossible to pull an empty up the hill—and just as impossible to push a loaded one down.

A Missouri road overseer with a half dozen men and as many teams could have done better in ten days than all the surveyors and workmen that have had a hand in the mix. If the street was to have been "improved" there should have been at least a sprinkling of gravel to hold the loose earth in place; or else it should have been "corduroyed."

Every sprinkle of rain now sends more of the soil down the hill—and gulches beside the curbing threaten to undermine and destroy the sidewalks at many points. THE REVIEW is casting no reflections upon anyone—but it fully believes that the improvements have not been as contemplated.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is no other medicine manufactured that has received so much praise and so many expressions of gratitude as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is effective, and prompt relief follows its use. Grateful parents everywhere do not hesitate to testify to its merits for the benefit of others. It is a certain cure for croup and will prevent the attack if given at the first appearance of the disease. It is especially adapted to children as it is pleasant to take and contains nothing injurious. E. A. Humphreys, a well known resident and clerk in the store of E. Lock, of Alice, Cape Colony, South Africa, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to ward off croup and colds in my family. I found it to be very satisfactory and it gives me pleasure to recommend it." For sale by Jackson's Pharmacy.

At The Postoffice.

There was a crowded postoffice Monday morning when the seven large sacks, crowded and jammed to the limit, were brought in from Portland. The Monday morning mail is usually double the every morning service—but that morning it was a whopper.

Several packages were jammed and torn beyond all recognition—and it will be a wonder if they reach the intended owners; but, aside from those few, things were all right. It was about ten o'clock when Mrs. Clark, the postmaster, breathed a big sigh of relief and assumed her usual smile.

It will be but a brief time now before the St. Johns postoffice will have an increase of salary—because of the steady and rapid growth of the patronage.

King Of All Cough Medicines.

E. G. Case, a mail carrier of Canton Center, Connecticut, who has been in the United States service for about sixteen years, says: "We have tried many cough medicines for croup, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is king of all and one to be relied upon every time. We also find it the best remedy for coughs and colds, giving certain results and leaving no bad after effects." For sale by Jackson's Pharmacy.

This is a big bargain—call and see it.

No Opium in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is not the least danger in giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to small children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug. It has an established reputation of more than thirty years as the most successful medicine in use for colds, croup and whooping cough. It always cures and is pleasant to take. Children like it. Sold by Jackson's Pharmacy.

A FEW THORNS

Several horses were burnt to death in Portland last Saturday. Now look out for bargains in canned "veal."

At Salem a man named Damon recently went on a drunk—and was found later dead. Pythias has not been heard from.

Among Sheriff Word's Christmas gifts no mention has been made of the "pig tips" he found away down in the tip of his hosiery.

It is seldom a price is reduced in Oregon—but on all holidays it costs no more for a haircut than it does for a shave. Just figure it out.

The first smelt in the Portland markets are now selling at $1 per pound. They'll be smelt a long time before we can buy even a smelt.

Anyway, the owners of the rattlesnake farm in Wisconsin can go to bed feeling that no fellow will come in at night and rob their roosts.

The panes in the store-front of the St. Johns Grocery quarters are large—but not so large as the pains one will experience if he should break one.

A New York judge has not been "shocked" by that horrid theatrical play of "Mrs. Warren's Profession." It requires a great deal to shock a New York man.

If you ever stop to think when you are eating roast chicken what a nasty thing a hen is it's a ten-to-one shot you'll say "I believe I'll take steak, please."

Some chump commenced to write it Xmas, I suppose, because it cost him X$ to pay for his gifts. In these days, with that as a criterion, it should be written "XmXaXsX!"

If it wasn't for Christmas many a merchant would go broke: if it wasn't for a Christmas many a man could pay his bills more promptly on January 1. 'N' there you are!

The Puter who worked the land frauds may be S. A. D., but his initials ought to be G. A. Y. He seems to have been more of a "gay" deceiver than a "sad" Puter.

For years Russian soldiers have been receiving $1.25 per yearovitch—but now that the czar has increased their pay to $3 a yearovitch they are so tickled they can't fightski.

People of Oregon are just learning that the Standard Oil company is a thief, a robber, and everything else that is mean and contemptible. We are a little slow here—but it comes to us later on.

The wise buyer who waits till after Christmas to secure what he desires always saves from 20 to 40 per cent. Everything is held at high figures when it is considered that people "must" buy.

A fellow in Minneapolis has been shot in "cold blood." And then the report goes on to say that he was shot in the bedroom. Any man in a bedroom full of cold blood deserves to be shot, anyway.

Under religious excitement John Webb, of Richmond, Virginia, chopped off his hand last Saturday. Possibly he wanted to "get it in his stocking." And yet 'tis said that only cigaret-suckers go crazy!

Wagner Brothers, of Dallas, are advertising some special bargains in buggies through the month of August. And yet there are some people who declare that up-to-the-minute advertising doesn't pay!

In the Pittsburg (Pennsylvania) insane asylum Saturday night the patients gave a masquerade ball. With the exception that no one went out between the dances for drinks it wasn't so very different.
